PROTESTANTS TO ORGANIZE A TAXPAYERS' ASSOCIATION

Preliminary Steps Are Taken to Keep Close Vigil on the Expenditure of Funds

TO GUARD CO. TREASURY

Headquarters Opened on Sixth in Quarters Formerly Occupied by Water Commission

With the object in view of investigating the expenditure of the public moneys in the city of Richmond, a tax payers' association is in process of formation here, with headquarters in the old Water Commission building on Sixth street. Three petitions protesting against the prevailing tax rate in the city are in circulation. These are in charge of O. Tobiason, Geo. C. Henley and Wm. Belding, and it is understood that the expenses of the organization campaign are to be paid by the backers of the project.

The names of seven men who should represent the association were enumerated in the petition which was circulated yesterday, but owing to the general sentiment which was expressed by the signers of the petition to the effect that the naming of the committee should be deferred until permanent organization has been accomplished, it is extremely likely that the petition will be revised to comply with the wish of the majority. The petition reads as follows:

"The undersigned, taxpayers of the city of Richmond, Cal., hereby protest against the excessive taxation now prevailing in said city, and we hereby agree to invite the assistance of all citizens and taxpayers therein to build up and perfect an equitable and efficient system of taxation for the city.

"In order to promote economy in the administration of the various departments of the city government and that the amount of taxes collected may be used for legitimate public purposes and in a way to attract important business enterprises, we hereby designate and appoint and name Hutt Brown, John Madden, Lewis Thompson, Peter McCallum, O. Tobiason and W. S. Runyon as a committee of seven to take charge of this subject and represent us as a Richmond Taxpayers' Association before the city council and in any other place whenever they may deem it necessary in order to carry out our purposes.

"We are in favor of extending this association over the county of Contra Costa."

In accordance with its policy of expansion the trustees of the Richmond Union high school have seen fit to purchase 112 feet of property facing on Bissell avenue, near Twenty-third street, for $2,000.

The property has a fifty-foot frontage on Twenty-third street and runs parallel with the high school grounds so that it can be either used for the erection of more manual training buildings or can be converted into recreation grounds.

A deed was recorded in Martinez yesterday by City Superintendent of Schools W. T. Helms whereby the transfer of the property belonging to J. N. Meckel, Christian Meckel, Louise Meckel and Albert Meckel to the high school trustees was made.

OPPORTUNITY IS AFFORDED MANY TO GIVE THANKS

Philanthropic Work Carried On by Methodist Churches Gladdens Many Hearts

The Epworth League of the Wesley Methodist church, under the direction of Miss Olive Sounders, Miss Myrtle Conn and Miss Emma Dahl, has distributed five hundred pounds of food as well as shoes and clothing in Richmond and have thereby gladdened the hearts of some forty families in and about the city. The work of distribution was aided through the courtesy of Clyde Conn and R. W. Byron who donated their autos for the work.

Other Charitable Work.

Reports from the philanthropic workers of the First Methodist church are to the effect that the ladies who a few days ago started out to solicit groceries and money for the benefit of the worthy distressed in Richmond have met with surprising results. In many cases where only a small contribution was requested, the amount offered has been doubled and in some cases tribled, so that a very comfortable sum and an amazing assortment of provisions was secured in the brief campaign. This afternoon the ladies assisted by the pastor, Rev. E. P. Petersen, have been busily engaged in the work of distribution and many a family will be enabled to spend a happy Thanksgiving where there were gloomy prospects yesterday. The various churches and individuals who have participated in the worthy cause are deserving of credit for their untiring efforts in distributing cheer among the unfortunates who would not have been able to have provided their families with the customary good things that are so conducive to Thanksgiving in the true meaning of the word.

RICH CATTLEMAN UNDER ARREST

Officer Wright left on the "Owl" at a late hour this afternoon carrying a warrant for the arrest of A. Frey in Hanford, one of the wealthiest cattlemen in the San Joaquin valley, for having passed a fictitous check on W. Gianella of the Golden Gate hotel in this city for $100.

As soon as the warrant had been issued for the arrest of Frey, Chief of Police Walker got into instant communication with Sheriff L. D. Farman of Hanford, who went to Frey's summer home and placed him under arrest where he is being held pending the arrival of Officer Wright with the warrant from this city.

A quaer thing about the whole affair is the fact that Frey is rated as being worth $40,000 and why he should balk at the payment of the check is a mystery to the authorities.

FABRICATION OF WAITRESS SOUNDS LIKE A FAIRY TALE

Police Scoff at Probability of Harrowing Experience of Ida Hollowell

STORY IS DISCONNECTED

"Perils of Pauline" Outclassed by Experiences of Fair Maiden in This Case

Telling a wierd and fanciful tale of having been drugged and beaten by a white slaver and left in a den of vice in San Francisco, Ida Hollowell, a 19-year-old waitress who has been working at Pullman and resides in Alameda has the officers of the law making investigations, but they are free to confess that they place little or no credence in her story which appears to be the imaginings of a fertile mind.

According to the story told by the girl she claims that she was followed into Oakland on the cars by a dapper young man who forced his attentions upon her. Later she met him at the Camera theatre on Broadway in Oakland and claims that while there she was either drugged or hypnotized the next she remembered was awakening in a San Francisco lodging house where the man was standing over her with a black snake whip. She further claims that she was severely beaten for no known cause and when she screamed for help he continued to beat her. She alleges that he left the room a short time after administering the final beating and returned with a small girl still in her teens and gave vent to his brutal wrath by beating the new-comer as vigorously as he had beaten her. She continued her story of persecution, claiming that her captor took them from the room and when near the ferry building in San Francisco informed the two girls that he intended taking them to Portland, Oregon, where they could earn a livelihood for him. The Hollowell girl says she made her escape by dodging into a blind alley and thence made her way to her home in Alameda, where she told her mother of her harrowing escapade.

The mother immediately reported the case to the police who have started an investigation, but are inclined to believe the story told by the girl is a piece of fiction, and was invented to deceive the confiding parent.

SOLICITORS FOR SUIT CLUB IN TROUBLE

A. Stein and Julius Green, representing the Eastern Outfitting company of San Francisco, were arrested at a late hour this afternoon by Patrolman Kreamer and charged with soliciting orders for a suit club.

The men were taken before Police Judge Lindsey, who after instructing the two offenders as to the various city ordinances ordered that the $45 which they had collected be refunded to the prospective customers and that they make fast tracks for the city limits.

POLICE SCOURING CITY FOR LOST CHILD

Police are scouring the city in search of Wilbur Figura, the little three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Figura, residing at 671 Fourth street, who wandered away from his home at an early hour this morning and up to a late hour this afternoon had not as yet been found.

The parents of the lad at first thought that their son might have fallen in a large pool of water near their home which upon being dragged failed to give any clues as to the boys' disappearance.

That something has happened to the boy is certain for at the time that he disappeared he was accompanied by a black shepherd dog which returned to the home a few hours ago.

DESCRIPTION OF CLEVER THIEF DISTRIBUTED

Man Who Took Typewriter From Polytechnic Building Was Seen on Street Car

The police of the bay cities have been notified by Chief of Police Walker to be on the lookout for a man wearing a light fedora hat, clothed in a brown sack suit and having a birthmark across the left side of his face who is regarded as one of the cleverest thieves now operating about the bay section.

His operations in this city on Saturday resulted in a $75.00 typewriter having been stolen from Mrs. Lurline Gorham in the Polytechnic building.

Shortly after the theft a man answering the description furnished by Chief of Police Walker was seen to board an Oakland-bound car with a typewriter which instead of holding on his lap he placed under the seat.

THANKSGIVING

For raiment and for daily bread,
For shelter from the rain and shine,
For length of days and hardihead,
Small gratitude is mine.

These are the loborer's due hire,
The hard it be to solve the doubt,
How I have merited the fire
My brother goes without.

But for the mission of my feet,
The labor of my heart and hand,
The service difficult and sweet
And all my own, I stand

Most deeply thankful, and for art
That nerves my strength and fires my brain,
For song, that ever calls my heart
Back to its dreams again.

For the assurance that my toil
Is furthering some mighty end
Beyond the present strife and moil,
Toward which the ages trend.

For labor, wageless tho it be,
For what I give, not what I take,
For battle, not for victory,
My prayer of thanks I make.

—Odell Shepard, in Harper's Weekly.

AN UPRIGHT MISSOURI JUDGE

It looks as if a genuine Missourian is as ready to show as he is to be shown. At any rate a Federal judge of that state bears out that theory. While sitting in a United States court in St. Louis Judge Dyer was summoned to pass upon a defendant who was accused of stealing slices of bacon. The alleged thief was a young fellow, who had a wife and aged parents to support. When brought before the bar of justice (not a misnomer in that instance) the culprit pleaded guilty and then broke into tears, telling a direful story of want on the part of his newly-wedded wife and his father and mother. Judge Dyer closely questioned the prosecuting officers and elicited the response that the prisoner had never been in trouble before.

Then the ermine wearer said: "I don't believe that a boy who takes something at a time when it is necessary to keep the bodies and souls of his father and mother together is a criminal at heart. I won't send him to jail. If he had stolen a railroad the chances are they would have sent him to Congress." A reviewer praising the action of the judge characterized it as a deed of mercy. But that blurs the point. It was rather a wise and righteous performance. In the nature of things the law does not contemplate classifying the mere abstraction of property as stealing. It may be wrong for a person to appropriate what does not belong to him even for the purpose of appeasing hunger, which is a divine ordainment, but it is not really and truly criminal, for which the penal code was established.

What the Missouri judge did was to show the world the fundamental distinction between snatching things under the stress a natural prompting and stealing them through a depraved habit. If that discrimination was to find a lodgment in the minds of the dispensers of justice the class of criminals and the number of jails would be greatly diminished.

The wreck of the steam schooner Hanalei and consequent loss of life is lamentable and especially when it is considered that the wreck took place within less than twenty miles of San Francisco and the Golden Gate where the best and latest life saving equipment is at hand. The best advices indicate that nineteen lives were lost and of these several were women passengers of the ill-fated ship. But now it is claimed that the reason for the loss of those who went down to watery graves was that the life saving equipment was obsolete and not of the sort which was calculated to be of service in a heavy sea and among jutting rocks. This is another case of locking the barn after the horse has been stolen. New and better live-saving equipment can be provided but this will not restore valuable loss of life which might have been saved had this been at hand when sorely needed.

The people of the United States complain a great deal over the dearth of war news from Europe, but just think what the men in the trenches over there are enduring. They are engaged in dodging bullets all the time and still do not know what is going on a half mile away. The people of America are not the only ones who are being inconvenienced by the war in Europe.

The royal family of Europe is so mixed with intermarriage that one nation finds itself paying royalties to the heads of the enemy's army. We in America have read ourselves almost sick about the Miss Goulds, Vanderbilts, and other American royalty intermarrying with their own class of Europe and we find ourselves sending interests, rent, dividends and profits to Europe and then praying for peace.

The Kaiser is not at all likely to eat his Christmas dinner in Paris, nor will the Czar dine on Christmas in Berlin. We suspect that both of the destinguished gentlemen are now willing to admit that they have bit off a larger chunk than they can gracefully masticate.

Haven't heard of any objection from our wool-growers to the British embargo on the exportation of wool from Australia.

CHARGE IS MADE THAT CHILD DIED OF HUNGER

PATHETIC TALE OF TRAGEDY COMES TO LIGHT THAT REFLECTS UPON THE BRUTALITY OF PARENTS OF 4-YEAR-OLD CHILD—OFFICERS HORRIFIED. THAT SUCH BENIGHTED CONDITIONS COULD EXIST IN THE COUNTY

OAKLAND, November 25.—That Isabelle, the four-year-old daughter of Joseph and Francis Machado, who have their home in Redwood Canyon, Contra Costa county, was permitted to starve to death is the charge of J. H. Fairweather, secretary of the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Children in his application to the district attorney's office for a warrant charging the parents with manslaughter.

The child died at the county infirmary yesterday from starvation, according to the investigation of F. M. Eastman, county pathologist. The fact was determined that lack of nourishment and not tuberculosis or pneumonia, as was first believed, caused the death of the infant.

Fairweather and his deputies found the child in an unconscious condition in the Redwood canyon home of the Machados on Friday. It was lying on a litter of dirty rags on the floor of the hovel, a meager crust of hard bread at its side.

The father, a woodcutter, blamed his wife for the treatment of little Isabelle, saying: "My wife, she no like dat babee."

The body of the infant was a mass of old scars and bruises, evidence, says Fairweather that the girl had been severely beaten.

Special arrangements are being made by the Red Men to have late cars run direct from the pavilion to all points in this city.

NOSE AND HEAD STOPPED UP FROM COLD OR CATARRH, OPEN AT ONCE

My Cleansing, Healing Balm Instantly Clears Nose, Head and Throat—Stops Nasty Catarrhal Discharges. Dull Headtche Goes.

Try "Ely's Cream Balm."

Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning! the catarrh, sold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone.

End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharge and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, four mucous dropping into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's recipe to bring back color, thickness and lustre —Everybody is using it again

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully and removes dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair; besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

HOW I CURED MY CATARRH

Told In a Simple Way

WITHOUT APPARATUS, INHALERS, SALVES, LOTIONS, HARMFUL DRUGS, SMOKE OR ELECTRICITY.

Heals Day and Night

It is a new way. It is something absolutely different. No lotions, sprays or sickly smelling salves or creams. No atomizer, or any apparatus of any kind. Nothing to smoke or inhale. No steaming or rubbing or injections. No electricity or vibration or massage. No powder; no plasters; no keeping in the house. Nothing of that kind at all. Something new and different, something delightful and healthful, something instantly successful. You do not have to wait, and linger and pay out a lot of money. You can stop it over night—and I will gladly tell you how FREE. I am not a doctor and this is not a so-called doctor's prescription—but I am cured and my friends are cured, and you can be cured. Your suffering will stop at once like magic.

I AM FREE—YOU CAN BE FREE

My catarrh was filthy and loathsome. It made me ill. It dulled my mind. It undermined my health and was weakening my will. The hawking, coughing, spitting made me obnoxious to all, and my foul breath and disgusting habits made even my loved ones avoid me secretly. My delight in life was dulled and my faculties impaired. I knew that in time it would bring me to an untimely grave, because every moment of the day and night it was slowly yet surely sapping my vitality.

But I found a cure, and I am ready to tell you about it FREE. Write me promptly.

RISK JUST ONE CENT

Send no money. Just your name and address on a postal card. Say: "Dear Sam Katz: Please tell me how you cured your catarrh and how I can cure mine." That's all you need to say. I will understand and I will write to you with complete information, FREE, at once. Do not delay. Send postal card or write me a letter today. Don't think of turning this page until you have asked for this wonderful treatment that can do for that it has done for me.

HEAVY TRAFFIC

On account of Thanksgiving all local trains passing through Richmond today were heavily laden with passengers who are making an exodus from the bay cities to spend the holidays with the "folks down on the farm."

NEW YORK CAN BOAST OF TWO MILLION ARCS

FATHER KNICKERBOCKER DISPLAYS 45,000,000 CANDLE-POWER IN EFFORT TO TURN NIGHT INTO DAY—MANY FORMS OF LIGHTING USED IN PRIVATE RESIDENCES AS WELL AS ADVERTISING OF THE VARIOUS SIGNS.

With a 45,000,000 candlepower smile, Father Knickerbocker greets the night. And this smile, radiating from the world-famous Great White Way, from the flashing arcs of the river front, from the glitter of Coney Island, from the arches of twinkling incandescents on the four East River bridges, and from one of the best street lighting systems in the world, makes Manhattan and its surroundnig boroughs the brightest spot on earth. It is calculated that 2,000,000 lamps are used to attain this result.

Coney Island, in the summer time, of course, stands out in a night panorama of the greater city. When going full tilt in mid-July, the resort lights the heavens with at least half a million lamps which, it is estimated, radiate 8,000,000 candle-power. The Great White Way is next in line, with its 1,500 signs, its show window lights, its street arcs and its hurrying throngs of auto and street arcs and its hurrying throngs of auto and street car lights. Here is furnished approximately 6,000,000 candlepower of the city's mighty illumination. Aside from the displays of the White Light district, there are 4,000 electrical signs in Manhattan. These contain 750,000 lamps, which contribute 6,000,000 candlepower to the general glare. Brooklyn has 2,000 electric signs to its credit, which are responsible for 1,000,000 additional candlepower; and the street lighting system of the five boroughs, which is composed of 84,000 high-powered arcs and incandescents, radiates a total of 16,000,000 candlepower. To this must be added at least 8,000,000 candlepower reflected from exposed lighting, such as shop windows and building decorations.

But of all this lighting the street illuminating system of the municipality is by far the most interesting. A regiment of lamp lighters turn on the street lamps of the city in about fifteen minutes. And almost as soon as "Johnny Lamp Lighter" has completed his work, men enter the field to care for the city's lighting. They are the members of the night patrol, whose automobiles travel from street to street all night long, looking for defective lighting.

Today the city's lighting is accomplished through the employment of six different types of lamps, which include arcs, incandescent lamps, flaming lamps, single-mantle gas lamps, inverted-mantle gas lamps and naptha vapor lamps. The three types mentioned last are used entirely in lighting the outlying districts of the city, and the parks, although large incandescent lamps are gradually taking the place of gas-mantle lamps in park lighting.

A seventh form of lighting, however, is soon to be introduced in New York city lighting, and lighting engineers predict that it will ultimately supplant the incandescent and gas lamps and possibly the arcs. This new unit, which was only recently perfected, is known as a nitro lamp. It is similar in appearance to the usual form of incandescent lamps, but the bulb is filled with nitrogen. Some few years ago the tungsten lamps were put on the market to give three times as much light as the old form of carbon lamp on the same amount of current. City lighting men say now that the new nitrogen lamp will double the best tungsten lamp efficiency.

Ten years ago New York's street lighting was far superior. It was characterized by experts as inadequate, unsymmetrical and entirely out of date. Open-flame gas lamps were in the majority, with mantle gas and arc lamps mixed in.

In response to a general demand for better street lighting all open-flame gas lamps were discontinued. The arc lamps were practically doubled in number at street and avenue intersections and symmetrically arranged as often as possible on street house lines. Mantle gas lamps were put on existing lamp-posts on all residence streets where arc lighting did not exist.

This was the beginning of a decade of the hardest kind of work by the city's engineers and central station men. One unit after another was tested and perfected, or tested and rejected, according to its merit. Fixtures were improved, too, and every little detail and intricacy resulting from the geographical peculiarities of New York worked out until the system finally reached its present effectiveness.

As for its electric signs, New York surpasses every other community in the world, both in number and variety of electrical advertising devices. Fifty-five hundred signs are recorded in Manhattan alone, while in Brooklyn there are 2,000, mostly of a similar type.

BURNS WINNER OVER AZEVEDO IN 15 ROUNDS

OAKLAND, November 25.—Frankie Burns easily annexed the decision over Joe Azevedo before the Oakland Wheelmen Club's show. There was no questioning Referee Toby Irwin's decision, for the Oaklander had a big lead on points in the majority of the fifteen rounds.

Azevedo started out in the first round to make it a rough bout, and in the following rounds the men stood head to head and hammered away. At that style of milling Burns showed to advantage. Azevedo continued his rough tactics, the same as he did in the last bout with Burns, when he was disqualified and was warned several times for using his head and elbow.

From the eleventh round on Burns commenced to pile up a decisive lead. He battered his opponent with lefts and rights and seemed to tie up Azevedo in the clinches.

There were no knockdowns or anything of the sensational in the boxing line.

The crowd was small, indicating that the rival show in San Francisco hurt the attendance.

The special event was marred somewhat by the failure of Eddie Miller to put in an appearance. No explanation was made, and evidently Miller was not wholly recovered from the effects of his bout with Malone last Friday night.

Eddie McAuliffe of Denver substituted against Willie Fitzsimmons and made a creditable showing. He was bested of the decision, but he made Fitz step during the four rounds.

In the opening bout Whitney Smith and Kid Lucky went four rounds to an even break. Kid Kelsey knocked out Frank Waldorf in the third round.

LECTURES ON ART TO BE GIVEN AT HIGH SCHOOL

Richmond people are to have the opportunity of a life time presented to them at an early date when a course of art lectures arranged by the faculty of the high school is announced. Among the treats that are in store is a lecture by Mrs. J. B. Hughes, who is sent out under the direction of the extension division of the State University. The first lecture of the series will be given Tuesday evening, December 2nd, and the next December 9th, while the third of the series will be delivered January 9th, and the others will follow one week apart thereafter.

The lectures in order will be on the art of Italy, Flanders, France, England and America while the final lecture will be upon the art of the Panama Exposition.

The series is arranged in such a way that interest will lead up to the grand finale. These lectures will be illustrated with lantern slides.

Students of the high school will be admitted free while the general admission fee for the series of six lectures will be $1.00.

WELCH BREAKS A HAND IN BOSTON BOUT

BOSTON, November 25.—Freddie Welsh, lightweight champion, defeated Fred Yelle of Tauton last night in a twelve-round bout. It developed after the fight that Welsh broke his right hand in the eighth round. The Taunton boy had a slight lead on the champion in the second and sixth rounds, but after the seventh the result was not in doubt. Twice in the eighth Yelle was floored by rights to the jaw for counts of eight. Although Yelle continued to exchange blows during the later rounds, he never recovered effectiveness, while Welsh was strong to the finish.

BOURBONS REJOICE OVER ELECTION OF SENATOR

Numerous Invitations Out for Banquet to be Given at the St. Francis Monday Evening

A number of the leading Democrats of Richmond are in receipt of an invitation to a banquet which will be of the nature of a testimonial and ratification of the victory of the party in the election of Hon. James D. Phelan to the United States Senate.

The invitation reads as follows:

San Francisco, California.
November 19th, 1914.

Fellow Democrat:

The Democrats of California have elected as United States Senator the Honorable James D. Phelan. He is the first senator elected in California by the vote of the people and the first Democratic senator since the election of that splendid patriot Stephen M. White, over twenty years ago.

By his long and unselfish devotion to the best interests of the people of his state, Mr. Phelan has endeared himself to the Democrats of California and all other right-thinking people. It has therefore been determined to ratify this election by a meeting of Democrats from all parts of the state at a banquet to be held at the Palace Hotel, in San Francisco, at seven o'clock, on the evening of Monday, November 30th, 1914.

Your participation in this testimonial is most heartily desired. It is hoped that you will make every effort to be present. In order to make proper arrangements it is necessary for the committee to know how many are to attend. Tickets must therefore, be obtained in advance. If you can be present, please send your application with remittance by return mail and ticket will be mailed you at once. Address Joseph J. Scott, Custom House, San Francisco.

The tickets will be Five Dollars each. Reservations will be made at the table in the order in which applications are received.

Yours very truly,
FRANK H. GOULD,
WILLIAM T. JETER,
R. M. FITZGERALD,
LOUIS H. MOOSER,
ED. E. LEAKE,
WALKER C. GRAVES,
JOSEPH J. SCOTT,
Committee.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if you feel Backachy or Bladder trubles you—Salts is fine for Kidneys.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritiated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases. —advt

Trusting to Memory

GOOD telephone service depends vitally upon care in calling telephone numbers. A wrong number called causes loss of time to you, to the party called and to the operator. Every instance means inconvenience to all concerned which is wholly avoidable.

It is not the loss of time to you alone or to the operator that concerns us most, but it is the annoyance to the party called. Your mistake cannot be explained to him, and the Telephone Company is held responsible for your error.

Consulting the current issue of the telephone directory, instead of trusting to memory; giving your number clearly; and quickly correcting the operator if she misunderstands your call, will greatly increase the efficiency of the service.

AN AMORTIZATION PLAN IS SUGGESTED FOR COLONISTS

SYSTEMATIC PROJECT IS CONSIDERED FOR UTILIZATION OF CALIFORNIA'S TILLABLE LAND BY WILLING WORKERS FROM FOREIGN COUNTRIES, WHO ARE ANXIOUS TO ACQUIRE FARMS IN LAND OF THE FREE.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 25.—At a meeting in the St. Francis Hotel, November 23rd, of the special committee appointed by the California Development Board to consider the problems involved in the proposed plan for colonizing Belgian farmers in California, the following noteworthy action was taken:

1. It was unanimously decided that the time had come when the scope of the original idea could safely be extended, so that the farmers of other nationalities as well as Belgians, and especially Americans who wish to go on the farm, could have equal opportunities for so doing. It has been fully determined by the Board that there is an abundance of land available at prices from which the speculative element has been squeezed out.

2. A strong legislative program is to be undertaken by the California Development Board, in conjunction with a Law Committee of the University of California, the Legislative Committee of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, and other dependable organizations which are specifically working for the development of the state. These committees, with the original Belgian committee, have been invited to sit with the Executive Committee of the California Development Board and consider constructive legislation.

3. A system of rural credits, both for new settlers and those already on the land, will be strongly urged. The details of this system will be worked out with great care and will evidently be brought to the attention of the legislature.

4. An epoch-making colonization plan, a modification of the Australian system, will also be advocated. It has been pointed out that an amortization plan could safely be adopted, whereby any farmer would have his farm paid for at the end of thirty-one and a half years, instead of merely paying that much in interest.

5. It will probably be advocated by the Development Board and the other organizations working in connection with it, that the state be urged to set aside a given sum, say one million dollars, for a colonization experiment which would determine exactly the basis upon which the same work might be carried out on a large scale. This experiment could be placed in charge of an existing organization like the Agricultural Department of the University of California or the new State Department of Agriculture, if that should be created at the next session of the legislature.

6. The Landschraft co-operative system of northern Europe will also be seriously considered by the joint committee as an alternative whereby mortgage loans may be guaranteed so securely that they will form gilt-edge securities that can be sold anywhere.

7. The National Marketing Commission, now being strongly urged by Mr. David Lubin, will also come within the scope of discussions.

All in all, the California Development Board believes that the time has come when the whole system of land colonization and settlement in California should be revolutionized; and it is hoped that the announcement started originally in behalf of the Belgian will bring about this happy result.

SUPERVISORAL CONTEST WILL BEGIN SOON

MARTINEZ, November 25.—W. S. Tinning, attorney for the friends of Joseph Williams, Jr., who are to contest the election of Supervisor Hook, stated Tuesday morning that the papers in this contest will probably be filed within a few days. The papers it is said have been signed and sworn to and all that remains is the making of the formal demand for the recount.

The little active interest displayed in the matter by the defeated candidates gives rise to the report that it is not so much Williams who is contesting the election as it is those who made wagers on the outcome of the election backing him and who lost their bets when the votes were counted. It is said that there was a considerable sum placed on the outcome of the Supervisorial fight.

THIRTY PLAYERS RESTING UP FOR ANNUAL RUBGY GAME TO BE ON TURF FIELD TOMORROW

CAPTAIN BROWN OF INDEPENDENTS PUTS HIS MEN THROUGH LAST WORK-OUT TODAY—MANY STARS WILL BE SEEN IN ACTION WHEN THE WHISTLE BLOWS TOMORROW—TEAMS EAGER TO DETERMINE THE VICTORS.

Thirty sturdy athletes bronzed from weeks and weeks of training are this evening resting up for the annual Rugby battle which is to take place at 10:00 o'clock tomorrow morning on the new turf field at Twenty-third street and Macdonald avenue.

The football players which will line up on the All Star and Independent teams are some of the fastest developed about the bay section this season, while the score of the game will in all respects be very close.

Captain Brown of the Independents composed nearly entirely of high school students, had his men out on the field for the final practice today and from the way that the scrum and back field worked it is confident of victory. Brown is a seasoned footballer and is expected to put up an excellent game in the position of halfback which he is to fill tomorrow.

Burke Calfee at the present time enrolled in the St. Matthews Military Academy and well known in this city informed Captain Brown of the Independents that he would be in town for Thanksgiving and would only be too glad to don a uniform and play. Calfee played on the Academy team which tangled with such fifteens as Palo Alto, San Jose, San Mateo squads in which he loomed up as a crackerjack forward.

In the halfback position for the All Stars will be Pruitt who, for agility and craftiness, cannot be beat. Coupled with Pruitt in the All Star's backfield are such players as Maddox who was forced out of the varsity lineup at California on account of an injured shoulder; Curry of Santa Clara; Childs, Donnelly, Norton and Davis.

The lining off of the field and the setting of the goal posts was accomplished today.

Scene from "Across the Pacific at the Richmond

TYPICAL WESTERN PLAY AT THE RICHMOND

"Across the Pacific," a Charles E. Blaney five-act photo play is a star feature at the Richmond theatre which is said to be one of the best photo plays which has been produced here. It is replete with action and is the nature of a play that produces the sensational chills that run up and down the spine in cadence with the music that accompanies the production.

The management announces that on account of tomorrow being Thanksgiving day, a continuous performance will be given at the Richmond from 2 o'clock to 11 at night. A brief synopsis of the story is as follows:

Unsuccessful in the east, Mr. Escott decides to settle in Montana with his wife and little daughter Elsie. They camp for the night and little Elsie wanders off, picking flowers.

A band of Indians attack the party, and kill Escott and his wife. Shortly after, little Elsie returns and finds her parents slain.

Lieutenant Joe Lanier discovers the child weeping over the dead bodies of her parents, and brings her to his mother.

Later the Lieutenant gives up his command and turns miner. Elsie grows up a charming, lovable young girl, and Joe falls deeply in love with her. A handsome stranger from the city is attracted by Elsie, and she to him.

Joe warns her against Bob Stanton, the stranger, but the girl indignantly resents his interference. Joe decides to enlist in the war against Spain, convinced that his love for Elsie is hopeless. Stanton persuades Elsie to elope with him, but the discovery of a former love affair with another woman shows her her mistake. When she learns that Joe Lanier is going to the Philippines, she awakens to the fact that she loves him deeply, and decides to follow him. Willie Live, a young war correspondent, assists her in many ways. The party embark for the Orient. Elsie is disguised as a young volunteer, unknown to Joe, who has been made Captain of the same company. Stanton also belongs to the same regiment, and in his enmity against Joe Lanier, has him sent through the enemies' line to defend Block House No. 7. Joe's force is not sufficient to withstand the repeated attacks of the enemy and he requests reinforcements.

General Lawton selects Elsie to carry the message of coming reinforcements. After humerous hairbreadth escapes, Elsie and Willie Live reach the Block House, and Joe recognizes her. She explains why she has followed him in spite of every obstacle, and they are happily united.

The Filipinos attack the fort and almost overcome the small band of heroic Americans, when aid arrives to their rescue, and the enemy is put to flight, with the Star Spangled Banner waving over Block House No. 7.

CAPTAIN ASSUMES ALL BLAME FOR WRECK OF HANALEI

entire blame for the wreck of his command on a reef off the Marconi wireless station near Bolinas.

While taking full blame as commanding officer of the vessel, Captain Carey said that his second, William Reese, who was drowned, did not properly follow out his instructions. At the time he made the following statement the captain did not know that Reese was dead:

"From a landfall of Point Reyes the course of the clear side of Duxbury reef is east and by south. From the clearance of Duxbury reef the course is north of east. And then after finding a course that will bring you down through the north channel, the course is changed to south of east again.

"On Monday morning, between 10 and 11 o'clock, I obtained a good landfall off Point Reyes. There was fog but the bluff showed I figured an offing of three miles.

Order to Change Course.

"I told my second officer that we would change our course for Duxbury reef clearance and asked him what the log read for the last two hours. He told me. After figuring near slack flood tide I told him to steer a course east by south for 18 miles. Naturally he would be supposed to figure the distance by patent log, revolutions and by elapsed time, according to the regular showing of the ship's speed.

"I told Rees to change the course to east half north after going those 18 miles, but to heave the lead before doing so.

"I will admit that, under the conditions, I should have made a point of being on the bridge at the time those eighteen miles should have been covered. But, in coastwise traffic it is apparently so simple a matter to steer the point to point courses, that the captain seldom insists on supervising them all.

Cry of "Breakers!"

"At the time I gave Mr. Reese these instructions I had a curious feeling that I should steer a course straight for the lightship and go in through the main channel, instead of through the North channel. But, you know how it is with these coastwise vessels, two or three hours of time make a matter that we must take into consideration.

"I had had the same feeling on previous trips and nothing had ever happened. The first thing I knew of any trouble was the cry of the lookout—"breakers!" I was on my way to lunch, but ran to the bridge and then found that it was too late, as we had enough way on to carry us on to the reef.

"From that time on there was nothing to be done except what we did."

John K. Bulger, United States supervising inspector of steam vessels, initiated an investigation today to determine the responsibility for the wreck.

The testimony of every available passenger, officer and member of the crew will be obtained in order to ascertain if it is true that Captain Carey left the care of the vessel with its score of human lives in the sole charge of an officer who ignored certain specific instructions given him.

That Bulger is determined to sift the investigation to the bottom in order to learn the real cause of the disaster is apparent from a statement made last night.

"No time will be lost in the matter," he said. "If possible, the first hearing will be conducted today and, if the testimony warrants it, action may result in the court.

Hints at Criminal Action.

"The statutes provide that in certain cases of negligence well proven, criminal action may be taken. This investigation will be pushed with all speed possible and, if absolute negligence is shown, action will be taken."

If Captain Carey gives the same testimony at the investigation that he gave immediately after his rescue from the sea yesterday, he will admit that he turned the ship over to William Reese, the second officer, immediately after passing Point Reyes.

Why grin and bear all these ills when Sloan's Liniment kills pain?

"I have used your Liniment and can say it is fine. I have used it for sore throat, strained shoulder, and it acted like a charm."—Allen Dunn, Route 1, Box 88, Pine Valley, Miss.

"I am a painter and paperhanger by trade, consequently up and down ladders. About two years ago my left knee became lame and sore. It pained me at nights at times till I could not rest, and I was contemplating giving up my trade on account of it when I chanced to think of Sloan's Liniment. I had never tried it before, and I am glad to state that less than one 25c. bottle fixed me up apparently as good as ever."—Charles C. Campbell, Florence, Texas.
